This information must match a 2008 W-9 form on file with the SCCA National Office before payment will be issued.

Complete and accurate contingency participation information is the responsibility of each competitor. Competitors are responsible for program registration and understanding award requirements for the companies whose products you use. It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure that they receive the appropriate verification signatures for each event in which they compete.

Basic Contingency Programs are not listed on this form and do not require pre-registration with the SCCA national office, but may require registration directly with the sponsoring company. Failure to comply with ALL requirements will result in non-payment of awards. Complete program details are available on www.scca.com.
